the voters of Ohio county presents some interesting features to those who are disposed to scrutinize it closely. There are some good men on it; and seeing how the alfair, was managed, the wonder is how they got there. There are some others not so good, who seem quite in place in view of the kind of politics practiced about the town for the past few weeks.

vention is somewhat remarkable from the fact that a man who served Ohio county well in the last Legislature, who was the only one of the delegation to join with the Republicans to save the county from the tax-eaters, was turned down, and preference given to untried men. The mere fact of Mr. Edward Robertson's defeat was not the worst part of it. He was defeated by a clear juggle after the convention had nominated him. The Chair made the remarkable rulling that an obvious clerical error could not be recified after the vote had been announced. The work in yesterday's legislative conhad been announced.

ACKER'S BLOOD ELIXIS Is the only Blood

To the Editor of the Intelligeners.

Sig:—When I joined the lith Regiment West Virginia Infantry, I found but one man (the late Col. John W. Holliday) that I had known prior to culistment. As our chief surgeon was the greater part of the time Brigade Surgeon, I naturally became well acquainted with the military history of the men. I have often been asked by the Penaion Office: "How I know that the disability under consideration did not exist prior to enlistment." Not posted in their previous history I asked the Hon. John C. Black, Commissioner of Penaions, to please refer me to any clause in the pension laws authorizing him to go back of "muster in" for a certificate of disability; claiming that after medical examination, and muster in he was guaranteed as a sound man by an author-examination, and muster in he was guaranteed as a sound man by an authorised Government Agent.

An answer came promptly referring me to the Act of March 3, 1885, which provides, "that all applicants for pensions shall be presumed to have had no disability at the time of enlistment, but such presumption may be rebutted."
"Therefore this office when presumptions of the property of the sound of the presumption o presumption may be resulted.

"Therefore, this office when presumption is in a degree rebutted by the papers on file takes such steps as may seem necessary to reach the facts by correspondence or otherwise."

To me they are transcending all laws of natice in "presuming," for every one at il conversant with pension rulings, knows that it is almost impossible to rebut, even false testimony of malicious and irresponsible persons. I am in hearty accord with the President's veto of the claims of bummers and malingers, but this ruling certainly wrongs many deserving soldiers.

JAMES J. JOHNSON.

East Liverpool, O., August 24. Interrupting a Farmer.

When the Hon. M. L. Josiyu, the Mc-Henry county lawyer, was in the Illinois Senate he was one day advocating some sort of a measure, ostensibly in the interest of the farmers, and took occasion seest of the farmers, and took occasion several times to refer to "us farmers" and what "we tillers of the soil" deserve at the hands of the Legislature. When he had several times spoken in this manuer of himself as a farmer, Senator Fosdick, who was a little hop-o-my-thamb sort of a man, with a slim, squeaky voice, popped up, and, pointing his doubled finger at the grizzly Senator from McHenry, said:
"May I sak the Senator what he raises

"May I ask the Senator what he raises

"May I ask the Senator what he raises on his farm?"
"Oertainly, sir," said Jeslyn. "I raise h—I, and if you don't sit down I'll tell where you were last night."
Senator Foadick witted into his seat, and didn't breathe for a few moments for fear he would blow himself away. He withstood overy temptation during the rest of the session to interrupt "farmer" fealing.
